Leicester, May 13, 1860.

Dear McKim,

56 Since you could not possibly think of going to England this summer, - could you be a party to some such arrangement as the following? In case Oliver Johnson would go, and the Committee could make his way easy to do so, - would you take the Editorship of the Standard, - say for 5 or 6 mos. - or, it may be, less? It would involve the necessity of your spending most of the time in New York, I presume; and who could supply y<sup>r</sup>. place in Phil<sup>a</sup>, ad interim?

An early reply, to 221 Washington St. Boston, will much oblige,

Yrs. very truly,

S. May Jr.
